

Supporting a sustainable future

Once your family are looked after, would you consider leaving a gift to Garden Organic in your Will?

A gift to Garden Organic stands as a lasting tribute not only to the work and vision of our founder Lawrence D. Hills, but to all those who have contributed to that vision.

A gift in your Will could mean:

- New at-risk vegetable varieties are accepted into the Heritage Seed Library collection, combatting the rapid decline in genetic diversity.
- A pesticide-free environment for our children and future generations by supporting our campaigning and awareness-raising work.
- New organic growing methods and advice to meet the challenges of our changing climate, developed from citizen science and research.

As a legacy giver, we promise we will:

- Always treat your family and loved ones with the utmost respect and sensitivity.
- Handle any information you share with us with professionalism and care at all times.
- Allocate your gift carefully, to help secure the future of the charity and our work.

Leaving a gift to Garden Organic

There are several ways in which you can leave a gift to Garden Organic in your Will.

If you already have a Will and you would like to add a gift to Garden Organic, a simple way to change it is to ask your solicitor to prepare a Codicil.

You will need to decide what type of gift you would like to give, and how you would like it to benefit the charity.

Wording to use in your Will.

If you would like to leave a bequest to Garden Organic, please take this page to your solicitor so they use the correct wording:

- Pecuniary gift (fixed amount) to Garden Organic

"I give the sum of ..... pounds, free of all tax, to Garden Organic (working name of the Henry Doubleday Research Association) of Wolston Lane, Coventry CV8 3LG, registered charity number 298104. I direct that the receipt of the Chief Executive of the Association shall be a sufficient discharge to my Executors."

- Residuary gift (part of what's left after all specific gifts) to Garden Organic

"I give to Garden Organic (working name of the Henry Doubleday Research Association) of Ryton Organic Gardens, Wolston Lane, Coventry CV8 3LG, registered charity number 298104, a ..... % share of my residuary estate for the general purposes of the Association. I direct that the receipt of the Chief Executive of the Association shall be a sufficient discharge to my Executors."

- Specific gift (for example a property or painting)

I give to Garden Organic (working name of the Henry Doubleday Research Association) of Wolston Lane, Coventry CV8 3LG, registered charity number 298104, my ..... (name and description of item). I direct that the receipt of the Chief Executive of the Association shall be a sufficient discharge to my Executors."

If you do not already have a Will, we would recommend contacting a solicitor for advice in the first instance.

Thank you for your interest in leaving a gift to Garden Organic in your Will. We owe a lasting debt of thanks to all those who have so generously supported us in this way.
